United States District Court
844 North King Street
Wilmington, DE 19801

RE: LG.Philips LCD Co., Ltd. v. Tatung Company of Amercia, et al.
C.A. No. 05-292-JJF

Dear Judge Farnan:

On behalf of Plaintiff LG.Philips LCD Co., Ltd, ("LPL"), I write to request the Court's intervention to prevent Defendants from presenting new expert opinions that go outside the scope of their expert's report on invalidity.

As a general rule, an expert may not offer opinions that exceed the material disclosed in his expert report. See, e.g., Air Turbine Technology, Inc. v. Atlas Copco AB, 410 F.3d 701 (Fed. Cir. 2005). Furthermore, during the July 7, 2006 pretrial conference in this case, Your Honor observed that:

If either party solicits testimony from an expert in the form of opinion or otherwise, that goes outside of what the reports and the disclosures were, that can be briefed post-trial. And depending -- normally it's filed by a party who is not prevailing.

If I find there's been a violation of the rule and the pretrial order, I'll simply order a new trial with the losing side on that motion paying for the first trial, and incidental costs to that first trial, including attorneys' fees.

So you have to be very careful in presenting opinion testimony that you don't go outside the expert report, because you could be vulnerable to the post-trial procedure of losing the verdict and being faced with the cost. And I assume it's substantial just looking around the room here.

July 7, 2006 Pretrial Hearing Transcript at p. 8.

Although Your Honor has indicated that questions regarding the proper scope of expert testimony are best resolved following trial, LPL respectfully submits that the following issue, which is simple and discrete, may be best addressed prior to Defendants' submission of their case on the defense of invalidity.

In his expert report on invalidity, Dr. Webster Howard argued that claim 1 of the '002 Patent is invalid as anticipated and that claim 8 of the '002 Patent is invalid as obvious. (See Exhibit A, the Invalidity Report of Dr. Webster Howard.) Dr. Howard did not argue, however, that claim 1 is obvious or that claim 8 is anticipated. Nevertheless, Defendants proposed verdict form (as filed on July 19), and presumably Dr. Howard's upcoming trial testimony, offer obviousness as a defense on claim 1 and anticipation as a defense on claim 8.

As Dr. Howard may not offer opinions or defenses beyond those already articulated in his expert report, LPL asks that the Court limit Defendants' invalidity defenses to those already presented in Dr. Howard's expert reports. Specifically, LPL asks that Dr. Howard be proscribed from offering opinions on any obviousness defense on claim 1 or anticipation defense on claim 8 of the '002 Patent. Such an instruction will fairly limit the Defendants to the scope of their present reports and will help avoid juror confusion.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard D. Kirk (#0922)
